

IMPORTANT: How to get to the conference venue

Last Minute information about public transport from Heidelberg Main Station to the “Neue Universität” where ISIRC 2018 takes place.

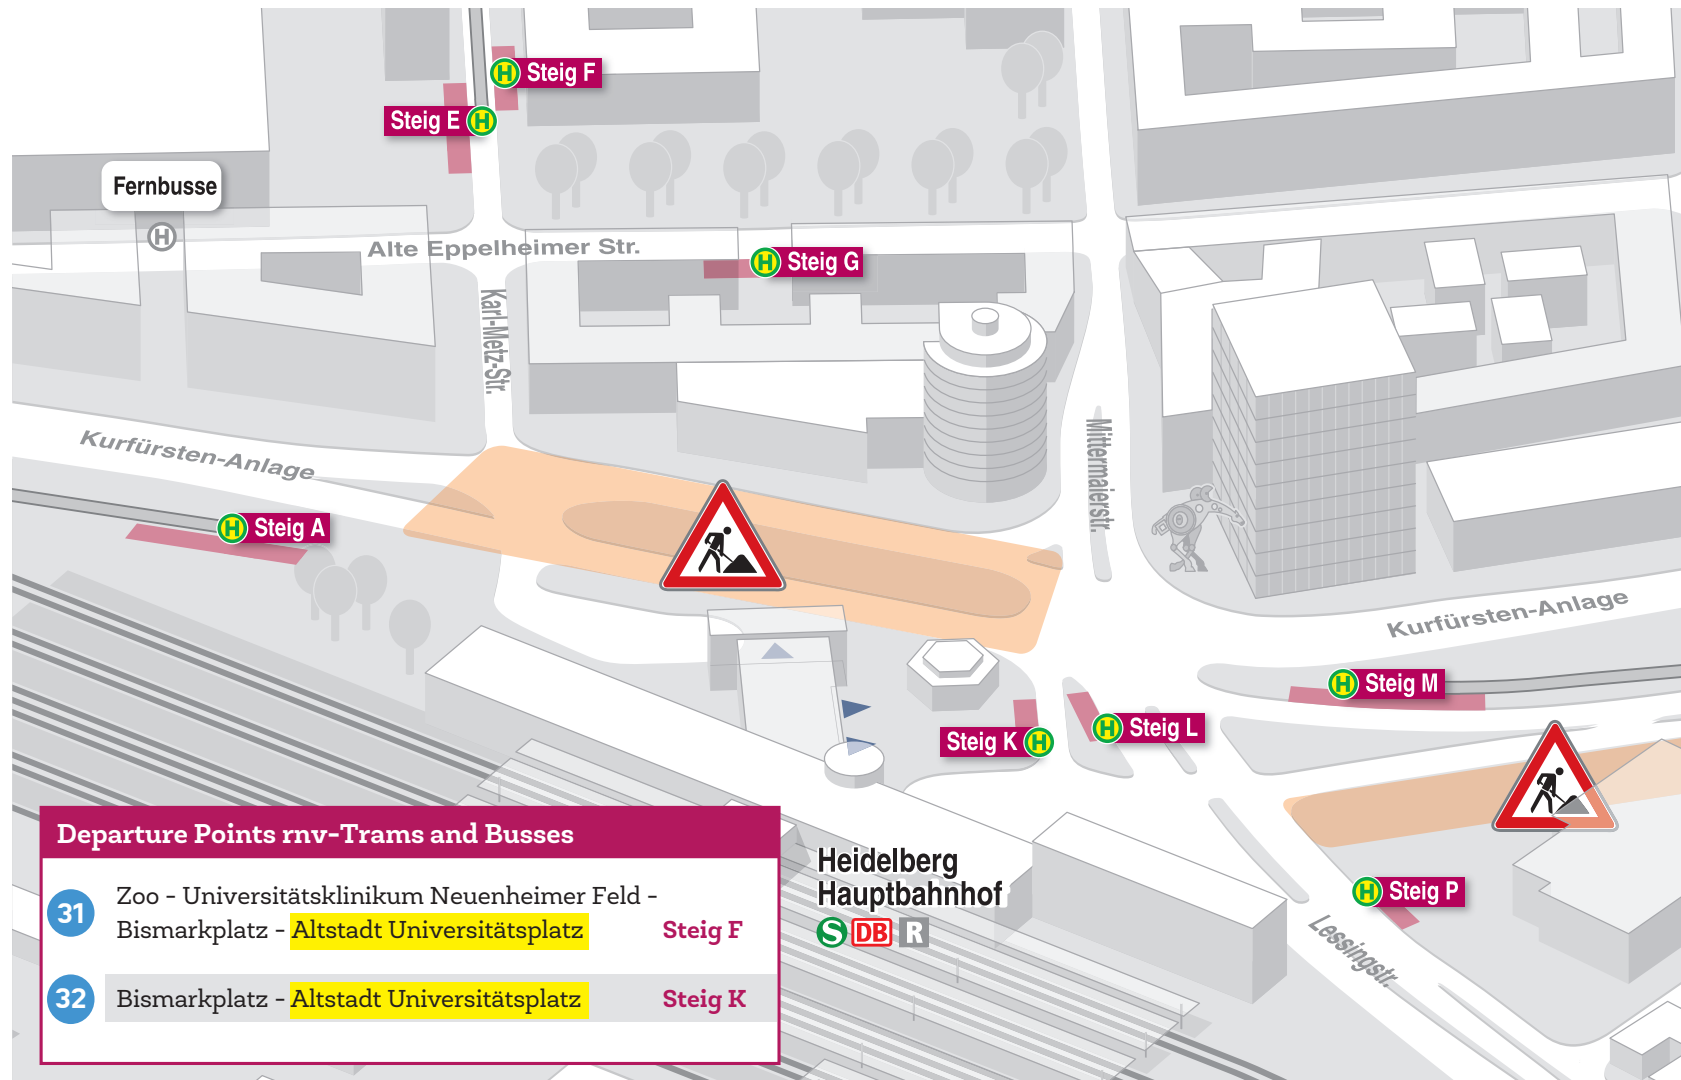

Due to major reconstruction around Heidelberg Main Station, we prepared some useful information on public transport.

So please notice the red box down on the left side of the ‘Construction site Heidelberg main station’ map listing buses and trams, as well as the platforms where they are leaving.

For reaching the conference’s venue at “Universitätsplatz”, please use the bus lines 31 (platform F) and 32 (platform K – best option).

“Bismarckplatz” is Heidelberg's main hub for trams/buses in the direction to “Universitätsplatz”, you can also take a bus/tram to “Bismarckplatz” first (tram 25 platform M) or busses 34, 39 (platform K). At “Bismarckplatz” you can either change to busses 31 or 32 to “Universitätsplatz” where our venue “Neue Universität” is located. Or you can take a walk down main street (Hauptstraße) –a pedestrian’s zone. It is 1 km or 10-15 minutes to the venue.

Have a good first Heidelberg trip!
